N. VALENCE,
ALTON, HANTS.

Price Sixpence.

"I am a Member of the Church of England; I belong to the Ancient Historic Church of my Country; It is a living branch of the great universal Church of God; It is the Catholic Church of this land, which has ever held The Catholic Faith and Ritual; and protested against all false doctrine, heresy, and schism; It welcomes all who profess and call themselves Christians, and for eighteen centuries has taught the people of this nation to fear God, to regard man, and to follow our Saviour Christ. . . . It has ever sought the highest good of all classes in England, and whatever holy desires, good counsels and just works, our Kings, Lords and Commons have attained to have sprung from its holy teaching. It has produced patient sufferers, earnest labourers, wise reformers, and noble writers, whose deeds and words and verses have from age to age stirred the hearts and hands of all true Englishmen. . . . In this Church I have lived; in this Church will I die."

HYMN WRITERS

ANCIENT AND MODERN

Of the Catholic Church.

THE Hymn Writers are of every age and every branch of the Catholic Church. In Hymns Ancient and Modern we have Authors who belong to

The Church of Israel,
The Greek Church,
The Italian (or Roman) Church,
The English (or Anglican) Church,
The Irish Church,
The French (or Gallican) Church,
The Bohemian Church,
The German Church,
The Spanish Church,
The American Church,
The Indian Church,
And others,

} All Branches of the Catholic Church.

There is no Protestant Church; every Church protests against some error or evil.

There are also some Hymns written by persons who separated themselves from the Catholic Church of their country.

PRAYER-BOOKS.

In the Middle Ages our forefathers had small Prayer Books which they called Breviaries. Amongst these Prayers

<sup>2</sup> A poem of 3000 lines on the "evil world." As a contrast he describes the glory of Heaven.

<sup>3</sup> "The best monk that ever lived." Queller of heresies, Umpire between Kings, Counsellor of Popes, Founder of the Carthusian Order, Author of a Crusade. The Last of the Fathers. Foremost of the Middle Age Poets. Full of Scripture.

<sup>7</sup> A "memorable man," much persecuted. He became "a fool for Christ's sake."

13th Century—16th Century.

were often Hymns, just as in our Common Prayer-Book we have the Hymn "Come Holy Ghost, our souls inspire," and many of Tate and Brady's Psalms and Hymns.

In England there were the Sarum, the York, the Hereford Breviaries or Prayer Books.

In France there were the Paris, the Le Mans, the Cluniac, the Meaux Prayer-books.

In Italy, the Roman Prayer Book.

In Germany, the Stuttgart, the Magdeburg.

In Spain, the Mozarabic.

In Belgium, the Liege Prayer Books.

The Authors of the Hymns are often not known.

SARUM or SALISBURY Prayer Book (Breviary). H. 45, 46, 57, 63, 88, 89, 95, 128, 141, 214, 396.

LIEGE Prayer Book (Breviary). H. 179.

OFFICE BOOKS FOR HOLY COMMUNION.

In the Middle Ages our ancestors had books for the Office of the Holy Communion which they called Missals. In these were Hymns, as in the Communion Office of our Common Prayer Book we have the "Ter Sanctus" Hymn, "Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of hosts," and the "Gloria in Excelsis" Hymn, "Glory be to God on high." In England there was the Sarum or Salisbury Missal or Office for Holy Communion. In France, the Paris Holy Communion Office (Missal). In Italy, the Roman. In Germany, the Mentz and others.

16th and 17th Centuries.

ALTON, Hants,

who being blind is not able to be as accurate as he wishes.

He puts out the pamphlet because he has not been able to find any cheap book like it for Choirs and Church persons who wish for information about the Hymns they sing;

And in the hope that it may suggest to the Clergy to give lectures on the Poets—Of the Eastern Church; Of the Early Western (St Ambrose); Of the later (St Gregory); Of the Middle Ages (St Bernard); Of the Reformation (Weiss and Sternhold); Of the 17th Century (Crossman and Ken); Of the Wesleyan movement; Of the Evangelical (Newton, Cowper); Of the High Church (Keble); Of the Catholic Reunion (Neale and Baker);—those many voices of the Church of God;

And on the Historic Continuity of “Ecclesia Anglicana,” The Church of Bede, King Alfred, the Sarum Breviary, Magna Charta; Kethe, Mardley, Cosin, Tate, Heber and Wordsworth.
